OtterBox, Clay Pot Creative top Mercury 100 Lists

By Staff

FORT COLLINS - OtterBox of Fort Collins added one more to a string of recent honors that includes a 2010 Better Business Bureau Torch Award for Business Ethics and a 2010 Bravo! Entrepreneur Award on Wednesday by placing No. 1 on the Northern Colorado Business Report's Mercury 100 list of the region's fastest growing companies.

Otter was first among 50 companies with revenues over $2 million, showing 744 percent growth over the past three years.

Clay Pot Creative, a marketing and Web design firm based in Fort Collins, was No. 1 on the list of 50 companies with revenues of $2 million and under, reporting 263 percent growth between 2006 and 2009.

The top 10 companies in each category were announced at a reception Wednesday night at Front Range Village, hosted by NCBR and sponsored by Brinkman Partners and Bayer Properties.

"This is the 11th year we have presented our Mercury 100 awards," said Jeff Nuttall, publisher of NCBR. "While I'm always happy to recognize the region's fastest growing companies, but this year, these are the companies who have still managed to grow through what has become known as the Great Recession."
